25X1X

- 25X1 1. On 20 July, [ ] 105 enlisted men had been discharged from KVP Unit Kiesslich (fnu), which was stationed at Fuenfeichen. Another 56 enlisted men of this unit were transferred to Kuechensee. Soldiers of the unit said that the unit was scheduled to be assigned replacements.<sup>1</sup>
- 25X1 2. On 12 August, [ ] the Krause unit which had been committed in the Berlin area, had returned to Fuenfeichen. [ ] 25X1
the unit would leave Fuenfeichen for good in the near future. At the time of information, the unit was commanded by Captain Wuelfert, (fnu), whose deputy was Senior Lieutenant Schwarz (fnu). At the same time, officers assigned to the battalion under Kiesslich, which was stationed at Fuenfeichen, included Senior Lieutenant Petzold (fnu), deputy commander; Lieutenant Schenkman (fnu), chief of staff; and Senior Lieutenant Winkler (fnu), political officer.<sup>2</sup>
- 25X1 3. [ ] Captain Kiesslich was scheduled to be reassigned and to be replaced by Captain Fricke (fnu), from Burg. The commander of the Krause unit was superseded again. Captain Mushle (fnu), had succeeded Captain Wuelfert. Senior Lieutenant Kiesler was scheduled to be transferred to Muehlhausen. [ ] 25X1 all Soviet advisers were scheduled to leave the installation in early August although no replacement advisers had arrived as yet.
- 25X1 4. On 20 August 1953, [ ] Captain Kiesslich and Senior Lieutenant Kiesler, whose reassignment had been announced, were still in Fuenfeichen.
- 25X1A 1. [ ] Comment. The engineer battalion under Kiesslich may have been assigned replacements, especially as recruiting for the KVP was resumed in August 1953.
- 25X1A 2. [ ] Comment. A previous report [ ] stated that the Krause engineer 25X1 battalion of the Prenzlaw Herceizant moved to Kuechensee in late July 1953.
